The Cottage Grove Historical Society invites you to learn more about our non-profit organization that exists on donations, membership dues, and book sales.

- The Historical Society is preserving the records, photos and documents of Cottage Grove and the surrounding area. Through this research the Society is able to publish the following books which can be purchased through the society as well as local book stores:

Golden Was the Past – Books 1 and 2
Historic Downtown Cottage Grove

Dr. Pierce’s First Aid Book
The Day Buster Smiled

- Cottage Grove history can also be found at the Historical Library Collection located at the corner of Birch Avenue and “H” Street. Please call 942-2255 or 942-2233 for an appointment.
- The Historical Society meets every third Saturday of the month, 10:00 a.m. at the Cottage Grove Community Center located at 700 E. Gibbs Avenue.

If the idea of having an organization that shares and prints information on the history of your town appeals to you, then now is the time to join or renew your membership.
